

Poland

MISCELLANEOUS MILITARY INFORMATION

Date of Distribution: 30 January 1953

Slupsk (Stolp): 1. Ulica Gdanska (Gdansk Street) Barracks, with exit east of the city. These barracks which are about 900 meters long contain the following: 50X1-HUM
(a) old prewar buildings. A medium-sized tank unit is stationed here. On their way to maneuvers in May 1952, this unit passed through the city in column formation, each column taking a different road. The column contained 20 tanks. (b) Some buildings built by the Poles after the war and now occupied by a unit of mechanized infantry. 50X1-HUM

2. A former school building on ulica Wanda is now used as a military school by a unit of battalion size. four companies each with about 100 men while they were marching. 50X1-HUM

Wroclaw (Breslau): One unit of Polish engineers located here (do not confuse this unit with the Soviet engineer unit located in barracks close by).

Zary (Sorau): The barracks on ulica Zaganska are occupied by a T-34 tank regiment, a DCA /unidentified/ regiment, and an antitank regiment.

Bielsko: 1. Hulanka suburb: one artillery regiment (could be antitank). The guns are drawn by 2½-ton trucks of Polish make.

2. Infantry unit (regimental size) is stationed here in barracks near the Bularz (formerly Molenda) textile plant.

Sosnowiec: An infantry unit (of regimental size) is stationed here in barracks on ulica Partyzantow.

Bardo (Wartha) near Klodzko (Glatz): An infantry unit (regiment) is stationed in the former fortifications.

Prudnik (Neustadt) near the Czech frontier: An infantry unit (regiment?) is stationed in a barrack on ulica Dabrowska and ulica Grunwaldzka. 50X1-HUM

Gliwice (Gleitz): in this city, an important infantry garrison (8,000 men) is located here. 50X1-HUM

SECRET/US OFFICIALS ONLY
Security Information